ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1908.

- In this year there will be three eclipses, all of the sun, and a Lunar Appulse.
- I. The first is a total eclipse of the Sun, January 3d, invisible in the United States; visible over the Pacific Ocean.
 - II. The second is an Annular eclipse of the Sun, June 28, visible as a partial eclipse throughout the United States. At Philadelphia: Eclipse begins, 9 o'clock, 44 min. Middle of Eclipse, 10 o'clock, 5 min. Eclipse ends, 1 o'clock, 8 min. Magnitude of the eclipse=0.74. (Sun's diameter=1.00.)
 - III. The third is a Lunar Appulse, Dec. 7th, the moon just rising at Philadelphia. Nearest approach of moon to earth's shadow, 10 o'clock, 3 min. Least dist. 12". Point of nearest approach, 56° west of apex.
 - IV. The fourth is a Central eclipse of the Sun, Dec. 23d, invisible in the United States. A central eclipse is annular at its beginning and ending, and total in the middle.

The calculations for this almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia and are expressed in Eastern standard time. When standard time is kept in places not on the standard meridian, add four minutes for each degree of longitude when west of standard meridian, subtract when east. In cases of moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, etc., simply reduce from Eastern to the required standard.—A. THOS. G. APPLE.

A GREETING TO OUR PATRONS.

This new issue of the ALMANAC is sent out with the hope that it may be a handy reference book every day during the year 1908. Let it serve as a bond between the house and the church. In every house that it enters may it find those who love the Lord and pray daily for the coming of His kingdom. Such a house is sure to be a place of peace, full of joy and hope, because it is built upon faith in Jesus Christ.

OUR ALMANAC.

A copy of this ALMANAC should find its way into every Reformed family, because it is the Year-Book of the Church. For several years past more than thirty thousand copies have been printed and sold at ten cents a copy. Last year the edition was exhausted before all the orders were filled. It has been issued every year since 1864. It was begun by Rev. Dr. Harbaugh, who understood the needs of the people and counted it a joy to serve them. In looking over the bound volumes, it is surprising how much is found that illustrates the history and spirit of the Reformed Church. And so it should be, for the ALMANAC belongs to the people. For years past, it has been extensively illustrated. Here you have an almost complete illustration of the history of the art of modern engraving. But here we find a record of something far more valuable. The statistics, dry as they may seem, are eloquent with the signs of the progress of the Reformed Church. To a man who said the churches are all failing the writer handed a copy of this ALMANAC and said "This refutes you. There is the record of our church and the record of the others are like it."

OUR GOVERNMENT.

The Reformed people are a democratic people; so also is their government. It is a popular, representative government. The authority lies with the people. No great change in creed or custom can be made until it is authorized by the Classes, where the elders and pastors, representatives of the people, express their minds. The lowest governing body with us is the Consistory, then follows in order the Classes, the Synod and the General Synod. And it should be expected of every member of the church that he or she understands and is interested in the work of these bodies. The Consistories usually meet every month; the Classes and Synods, every year; the General Synod, every three years. This body will meet in May, in York, Pa.

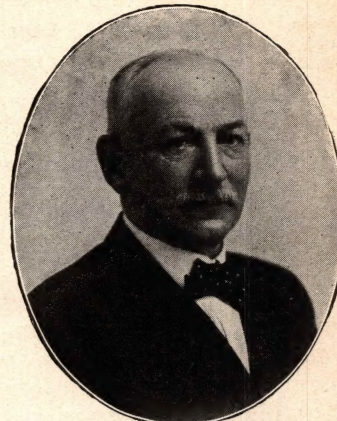

OUR STATED CLERKS.

Under the calendar pages of this year's ALMANAC are found the photographs of the Stated Clerks of the Classes of the three Eastern Synods. These men keep the records of the acts and proceedings of the Classes. These records are important in the business administration of the church. In time to come, they will be both interesting and important historic documents.

THE REFORMED CHURCH BUILDING.

By the Easter holidays, it is expected that all the Boards of the church will be comfortably housed in the new Reformed Church Building, located at Fifteenth and Race streets, Philadelphia. Every citizen of the city knows at once just where that is, as the corner has been made famous for a century through the institutions of the Friends Society. It is a central location, just three squares from City Hall. On page seven will be found a picture of the building. Members of the church coming to the city should visit it.

WESTERN MISSIONS.

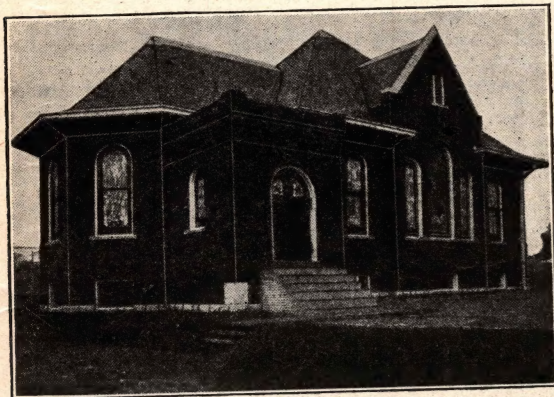

There are now twenty-five missions in the Synod of the Interior.

Two were taken up since October 1, 1906, namely, Freeport, Ill., and Second of Kansas City, Mo. Two became self-sustaining, namely, Alamento and Shelbyville, Ill.

Ten of the large cities of this territory have had

DENVER, COLORADO.

MAPLE AVE. ST. LOUIS, MO.

English missions established in them within a dozen years past.

We now have English missions in Chicago, Freeport, Ill., St. Louis, Kansas City, Mo., and St. Joseph, Mo., Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Sioux City and Oskaloosa, Ia., Emporia, Iola, Kans., Lincoln and Omaha, Neb., and Denver, Colo.

Of these fourteen missions, ten have very good and comfortable houses of worship. Some of them are becoming quite valuable because of their advantageous location.

The Board has invested in the church property of these missions a good many thousand dollars; but the property is well worth the money if it should be sold for uses other than church purposes.

The three missions that are without church buildings are: Freeport, Ill., Oskaloosa, Ia., and the Second Mission of Kansas City. These will soon be in the midst of church building.

In 1876 we had about three hundred members west of the Mississippi River in organized congregations. Now we have about 15,000 in nine Classes. That is progress.

There are five cities especially within this territory where we should plant English missions in the very near future. We can do it and we ought to do it.

HUNGARIAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL HOMESTEAD, PA.

OUR HUNGARIAN WORK.

This continues to be deservedly popular. The organization of a Hungarian Classis has given stability to this interest. The missions in Chicago, Ill., and Cleveland, O., became self-supporting in 1907. Including these, we have thirteen Hungarian pastors; and we have also eight Hungarian students for the ministry, supported by moneys given for this purpose.

LARGER THINGS.

As a Church we must do larger things. God has given us a great inheritance of opportunity. We now have almost 300,000 communicants members and our people have much wealth. Our home missionary work has grown to large proportions, and we to-day have ten times as many important missions as we had forty years ago. With larger membership, larger wealth and larger demands, we need to have also larger thoughts and desires, larger plans and hopes, yea, above all, we need larger hearts. Our great work should be done with a strong hand and with corresponding gifts of men and money.

Seeing that God has highly favored us as a Church, our people should consider well what is involved in the larger support and the firmer establishment of the work of Home Missions. The growth and prosperity of the Church as a whole, indeed the support and prosperity of all her other work, depend largely on the emphasis which she places on this work. To be weak at this vital point is to invite weakness throughout; and to be strong here, assures consequent strength in every other department.

SPECIAL HELPS.

The Church Work Convention, the Classical Missionary Society, the Mission Study Class, the monthly "Missionary Day" in the Sunday-school and the wise distribution of home missionary tracts, leaflets, reports and other helpful literature, these are special helps of great value, and this seed-sowing will in due time bring forth a rich harvest.

THE STRANGER AT OUR DOOR.

The Harbor Mission at Ellis Island, N. Y., in charge of Rev. Paul H. Land, continues to do a beautiful work among needy strangers at our door. Its results are not so apparent and convincing as in the case of our other home missionary work, but the Harbor Mission is a real charity and deserves the confidence and larger support of the Church.

HAVE YOU DONE IT

Have you made your will? If not, why not? Some people are superstitious. They are afraid that by making their wills they will hasten their deaths. Superstition is always the enemy of true religion. Make your will while you are in good health. It will add to your peace of mind. And when you do make it, remember the Lord's work. He is as much of an heir of yours as anyone of your children. Give the Lord His portion and He will bless what remains.

A PRIVILEGE AND AN HONOR.

Every congregation should consider it an honor and a privilege each year to make a contribution toward the support of the aged or disabled ministers of the Reformed Church. There are two societies which have this work in charge. There is the old Relief Society, which is really the oldest institution in the Church. Rev. S. S. Miller, of Frederick, Md., is its treasurer. The other society has been organized recently by the General Synod, and Rev. Dr. J. M. Schick, of Washington, D. C., is its treasurer. An opportunity is thus given for every church to contribute to this sacred cause. Men and women of wealth can do no more beautiful act than to aid one of these societies.

A DESERVING PEOPLE.

Our home missionaries frequently express the gratitude of their people for the help received, both in the support of pastors and in building churches; but these missions show their gratitude also in the wise use made of this help and especially in their large self-help reported in the annual statistical tables. They receive much, but they also give much. Their average for congregational outlay is almost double that of the Church at large, while their average for benevolence is nearly as large as that of the self-supporting churches.

OUR CHURCH IN THE SOUTHLAND.

North Carolina is the Golden Gate to the South for the Reformed Church in the United States. Will we enter the land and take possession?

We now have eight missions in that number of the best towns and cities of the Piedmont section of North Carolina, viz: Burlington, Greensboro, High Point, Thomasville, Lexington, Salisbury, Conover, and Lenoir. There are just as many other places of equal importance in which missions should be established at once.

The Reformed Church now has a confirmed membership of over 4,000 in North Carolina. The contributions for benevolence last year were $6,000.00, and for congregational purposes, $21,000.00.

Catawba College, at Newton, and Claremont College, at Hickory, are the educational institutions of the Reformed Church in the South. The former is co-educational, and the latter is for girls alone. These institutions should be fostered by all our Reformed people.

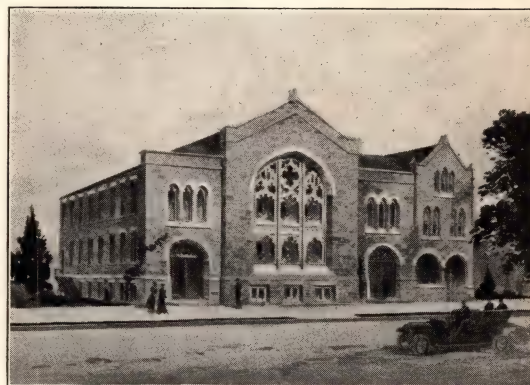

The mission at High Point, N. C., has started another Sunday-school and congregation in that city.

The mission at Lexington has done something in starting the Second Reformed Church in that town. The congregation at Hickory has started an interest at Brookford, a cotton mill suburb. The Classis of North Carolina, at its last annual meeting, appointed committees to look after Reformed interests in Kanapolis, Landis, Spencer and Lincolnton. The harvest is ripe, but the laborers are few.

OUR NEW FOREIGN MISSIONARIES:

During the past year the Board of Foreign Missions has sent to Japan Miss Lydia A. Lindsey and Miss Kate I. Hansen, as teachers for the Miyagi Girls' School at Sendai, and Miss Edyth N. Brightbill as nurse for the hospital at Shenchowfu, China. Since April 1, 1907, Rev. Irving G. Boydston and wife have been members of our China Mission. They came to us from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Mr. Boydston will be the associate of Mr. Beck in the Boys' School at Shenchowfu.

Five years ago one of our ablest ministers told the Secretary of the Foreign Board, "I think we have gotten to the limit of our giving for foreign missions." The receipts then were $55,000 for the year. Dr. Bartholomew very properly replied, "If I thought so, I would resign tomorrow." Nor have we gotten to the limit now, when we contribute $95,000 per annum. The people desire to aid in the spread of the Gospel; let them have a fair chance to do so.

Fifty-one foreign missionaries! This is a good record for our Church. There are twenty-eight in Japan and twenty-three in China. We need two more physicians and nurses for our hospitals at Yochow and Shenchowfu. The evangelistic work in Japan will require four additional foreign workers if the work is to prosper.

There is a note of triumph to our work in Japan and China that must thrill the heart of the Church. The reports from the evangelists for the past year show the power of the Spirit in the spread of the Word. Never have the prospects been so bright, nor the needs as great.

The receipts for 1907 amount to about $95,000. The annual expenses of the Japan and China Missions are, at least, $75,000. This does not include furlough expenses, new buildings, nor the home expenses.

LAKESIDE.

Our Boys' School Buildings at "Lakeside," four miles from Yochow, are a wonder to that part of China. The buildings are all of brick. The cost of the entire plant is cause for rejoicing. Dr. W. E. Hoy deserves the gratitude of the Church for his careful superintendence of the work, and of the economic expenditure of the funds at his disposal. Here are the facts, and they are a marvel of economy:

Hoffman Hall	$3,346.16
Recitation Hall	3,032.16
Dining room and gymnasium	1,355.36
Kitchen, store-rooms, etc.	439.10
Bath-rooms, barber-shops, etc.	555.10
The 13 acres of ground cost	631.34
Pittsburg Synod missionary residence..	1,500.00
Total	$10,859.13

The Hoffman Hall, at "Lakeside," was made possible by a gift of $3,000 from Elder George W. and Agnes Hoffman. What a beautiful memorial of love and generosity for Christ and His cause in China! Who will do for the Girls' School at Yochow what these aged servants have done for the Boys' School at Lakeside? Such deeds are a living word and a pure gospel of life.

The bequest of $7,000 to the Board of Foreign Missions by N. B. Schmitt, of Woodstock, Va., was paid early last year. It is the largest single gift in our Church to foreign missions. A good man gave it.

DELEGATES OF THE FIRST SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION HELD IN JAPAN.

Two of our churches in Japan—the Kanda church at Tokyo and the Rokubanchō church at Sendai—have become self-supporting. The event in Tokyo was celebrated amid great rejoicing. Pastor and people have sent a letter of thanks to the Board. Our missionaries encourage the spirit of self-help, which is always commendable.

When an old man takes to the Gospel in China it means much, for gray hairs and advanced years command respect and influence. Think of an aged man, of 77 years, traveling a hundred miles to be present at a service in Dr. Kelly's home at Shenchowfu, China! Before he left the city, he said that he had been for seventy years seeking peace, in vain; but now he believed the Gospel, and he thought he could find it. He was going home, and in his village there were some old men like himself whom he would tell about the "doctrine."

Behold the progress in missions!

In 1806, at the Haystack Prayermeeting, Samuel J. Mills said, "We can do it if we will."

In 1906, at the centennial of that memorable prayer service, Dr. Samuel B. Capen said, "We can do it, and we will."

We spend $25.00 for religious work at home for every dollar we spend for similar work abroad, and 3,400 church members stay at home to every one who goes as a foreign missionary.

Such has been the remarkable progress in Korea that missionaries believe it will be the first country in Asia to become Christianized. The increase among believers during the past year is said to be forty per cent., and the work shows no halting.

One of the hopeful signs of the times in the Reformed Church is that we care for the children, and in the home or orphanage, in the school and the church, we train them for a life of service.

has now been observed six times; and on the second Sunday in November, 1908, doubtless more Sunday-schools and congregations than ever before will observe it. The general observance of this day would bring large results.

Home Missionary Day is probably a fixed order. It

PARSONAGES FOR OUR MISSIONS.

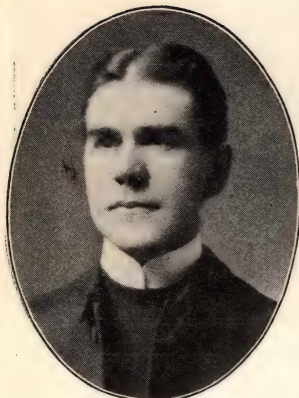

The Church, in its wisdom, has erected houses for its teachers. Many self-supporting congregations have parsonages for their pastors and besides that pay them large salaries. Our missionaries have ordinary salaries. They receive very little in the way of pre-requisites, presents and gifts and, as a rule, must live in rented houses. In nearly all our cities and towns rents are very high at present and a large part of the salary of the missionary goes for rent. We ought to build parsonages for our missionaries. No special movement has been inaugurated for this purpose; but I am sure there are people whose hearts are moved to help our missionaries in providing comfortable homes for their families. Nothing will be more helpful in this direction than to provide a parsonage for them.

Trinity Sunday-school, of Waynesboro, Rev. F. F. Bahner, D.D., pastor, is seventy-three years old. During its long existence it gave thirteen of its scholars to the ministry. They were: Andrew P. Frieze, Jeremiah Heller, Henry Harbaugh, Daniel Gans, George Besore Russell, Jeremiah Cooper, A. Carl Whitmer, Christian C. Russell, Simon S. Miller, Joseph H. Johnston, Josiah D. Detrich, Charles H. Coon, J. Harvey Mickley.

THE SANCTUARY.

For years the ALMANAC has contained pictures of the exteriors of many Reformed churches. It has been thought well this year to publish a number of interiors. It is not claimed that these interiors are of the prevailing style. There is really no exact, distinct Reformed type of sanctuary. Another year another style may predominate in our exhibit.

The sanctuary of the Lord should be the best room in the community. It should be fashioned and furnished as becomes the place where we meet the Lord. It should be fine and not extravagant. It should be beautiful but not barbaric. It should give evidence of the best thought and the finest feeling of the people who make it a place of habitual worship.

REV. H. H. APPLE.

FIRST CHURCH, LANCASTER, PA.

Our Reformed churches compare very favorably with those of other denominations, both in style of architecture and cost of construction. And whilst this is commendable, it should be remembered that people who worship in such fine houses are naturally expected to do something substantial toward the founding of the Church of Christ in the distant part of the earth. A girl from Japan, on visiting our American Reformed churches, said: "I am glad you have such large, beautiful churches; but when I sit in them and then remember how poor we are at home, I am not jealous, but my heart aches for my own people."

REV. W. STEWART CRAMER.

God works by human instruments, and because of this fact the world will not be saved in a day. But all the nations of the earth may have the Gospel preached to them within a generation or two. In order that this may be done, however, we must keep on preparing men and women for the work, for the present workers will soon pass away. In order that we may have workmen thoroughly imbued with the spirit of missions, we must begin to teach the children. In addition to the regular lessons which are taught in the Sunday-schools, the importance of Home and Foreign Missions should be impressed upon the children, so that they will grow up with a sense of their obligations and will be ready to take up the work where others lay it down.

THE CHILD AND THE CHURCH.

The church of to-day is the Sunday-school of yesterday. Eighty-five per cent. of our church membership has come from the Sunday-school, and ninety-five per cent. of all our preachers came from the same source. This brings before us at once the immense value and tremendous importance of recognizing the claim of the Sunday-school as the sphere of greatest magnitude for efforts looking in the direction of garnering souls within the kingdom and the training and development of those who in after years are to be the bone and sinew of our church and denominational life.

Maryland Classis licensed him to preach the Gospel May, 1893, and on June 1, 1893, he was ordained to ministry and installed as pastor of Beam's Charge, Somerset Classis. He served this charge three years, when, on account of his health, he resigned to accept a call to Lovettsville, Va., where the climate was not so severe. However, in May, 1894, he was compelled to give up the pastorate at this place and enter the hospital at Frederick, Md. From here he went to Somerset, Pa., where his life was brought to a close. Rev. He was married to Miss Flora Moyer, who with one son survive.

REV. HERMAN A. MUEHLMEIER, D. D., died March 11, 1907, in the seventy-ninth year of his age. Dr. Muehlmeier was of foreign birth, but spent the greater part of his life in this country. His education and theological preparation was received at Mercersburg. He was ordained in 1853. His first congregation was that at Sheboygan, Wis., which he organized. From here he went to Franklin, Wis., becoming pastor of Immanuel's congregation. When the Mission House, the German College and Seminary of the Reformed Church, was organized at Franklin, Wis., he was placed at the head of it. He was the founder of the institution; its first superintendent and has been a professor in it ever since. The best of his life was given to the Mission House and many ministers of the Reformed Church gratefully acknowledge the help and training they have received from him.

REV. JACOB MUELLHAUPT died February 6, 1907. He was born in St. Gall, Switzerland, October 20, 1846. In early life he worked at book-binding, and it was through the Y. M. C. A. of St. Gall that his attention was called to missionary work. He spent four years in the Mission House at Chishone and from there was called by the Synod of the Northwest of the Reformed Church in the United States. He was ordained by Sheboygan Classis and commissioned as a missionary to Stockton, Cal., where he labored from 1872 to 1876. In 1876 he removed to Salem, Ore., where he began mission work, organizing congregations at Meridan, Salem, Waldo Hills, Mt. Pleasant and Washougal, Wash. At Stockton, Cal., he married Miss Margaret Schindler. On March 6, 1891, Mrs. Muellhaupt died.

REV. LEVI RIKE. For nearly fifty-three years Rev. Rike continued in the service of the church. Twice, for short intervals, was he driven from the active pastorate because of ill health. But upon regaining his health he resumed the work of his Master and until the time of his departure, often laboring under great disadvantages because of failing health. He was born November 11, 1830, in Ohio, was confirmed by Rev. Dr. David Winters in David's Reformed Church, near Dayton, Ohio. His theological preparation was made under his cousin, the late Rev. John Rike. In April, 1854, Miami Classis licensed and ordained him. He served West Alexander Charge, Ohio, four and a half years; Corydon Charge, Ind., ten years; Farmersville, ten years, and Elk Creek Charge, Ohio, for twenty-seven years. In 1882 he graduated from Muhlenberg College and in 1885 from Yale Divinity School. He was licensed to preach by Lehigh Classis in 1885. In the fall of the same year he took charge of the mission in Kansas City, Missouri. From there he was called to become Superintendent of Bethany Orphans' Home, Womelsdorf, Pa., and with Mrs. Yundt as matron, there was begun, in the spring of 1886, a work for which Rev. Yundt was especially fitted and which made his name dear to all the members of the church in this eastern section. After eighteen years of sacrificing, noble work, he resigned the superintendency of Bethany Home and accepted the pastorate of the Alsace Church, near Reading, Pa., from which he resigned after a few months to accept a call to become General Superintendent of Home Missions, extended to him in June, 1905, and in less than two years after having assumed this office, in the administration of which he showed marked ability, death claimed him. In 1885 he was married to Miss Minerva A. Koons, of Allentown, Pa. Five children were born, four of whom and his wife survive him.
